Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church Noting Anniversary

Sunday will be a double anniversary for the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church of Lomita. The Lomita congregation will mark the beginning of its 17th year. The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will begin his 11th year as pastor of the local church.
The church had its beginning in a rented store building on Lomita Blvd. There were thirteen charter members in 1944. Property was purchased on Lomita Blvd. at Walnut Avenue. This soon proved too small and the present location at 248th and Narbonne Avenue was selected as the permanent sight. From this small group to a congregation of one thousand has been the story of this Southern Baptist Church.

at the mission record, there are six churches and one mission that this church has sponsored. Combined membership in these churches has reached 2,500. This should help us to see what can be done in the future."
Editor William A. Muir, Candor, N. Y., Courier — A vigilante committee wreaking vengeance... would in itself be as criminal as the actions it is seeking to correct. We cannot tolerate such actions on the part of a citizens' committee any more than we can tolerate them on the part of individuals. Both operate outside the law.

... Murder

MR. WELLS came to Lomita in 1950 to serve as pastor. The church staff has now expanded to include two other full time employees. Mr. Edwin Isbell is minister of music and education. Miss Sue Snider is educational secretary and nursery coordinator.
The pastor will speak at both the 8:30 and 10:50 morning services on the subject "Look Both Ways."
"A LOOK AT the past is in order but not for bragging purposes. A look to the future is better, for we plan to spend all our time there. When we look

He found Fox in bed, and arrested him as a suspect in the murder turned up by the Manhattan Beach officers.
YOUNG FOX admitted the shooting, but told investigators that he was shooting at an unidentified hitchhiker. Yesterday he broke down and confessed to shooting his uncle after a violent argument over Phillip Fox's girl friend.

HELD FOR MURDER... Manhattan Detective Ray Bennett leads 19-year-old Phillip Fox from interrogation room after his arrest here early Monday on charges of murder and kidnapping. His arrest also cleared a robbery in Torrance last week in which a service station attendant was wounded by a shotgun blast.

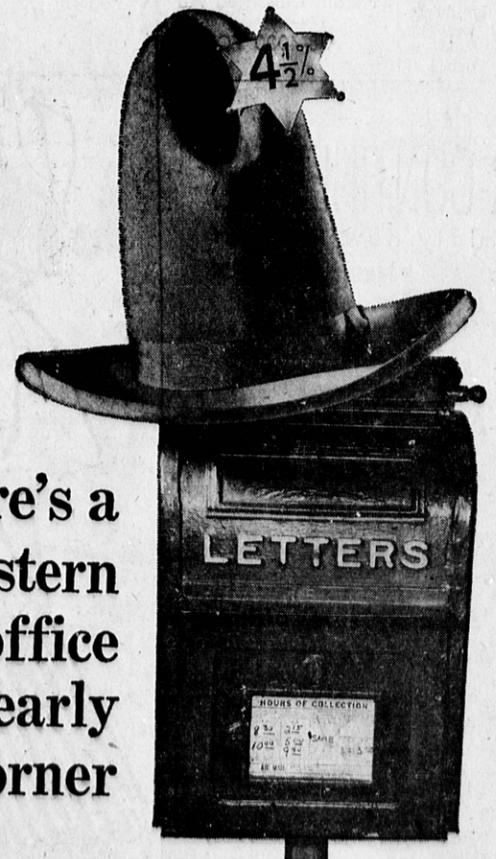

In addition to the murder charge, he faces kidnapping charges filed as the result of a gun-point abduction of Peter Schofield, 18, who was forced to drive him to Los Angeles earlier Monday.
up his mother, and if he didn't get there on time, she would call police.
The man rode to Los Angeles with Schofield, where he was dropped off.

TORRANCE police later found a shotgun under Phillip Fox's Torrance house. He allegedly has admitted the shooting of Charles Sutton of 25625 Narbonne Ave. in an attempt to rob a service station at Western Ave. and Carson St. early Friday.
SCHOFIELD told police he was about to leave his Manhattan Beach home to pick up his mother, who worked in Los Angeles, when he was accosted by a man with a shotgun, and asked to be driven to Torrance. Schofield said he had to pick
